Schools, Church Hit by Burglars

$1200 Loot at Wilson School; 3 Boys Caught at Dunbar School

Two schools, a church and the Lincoln Place Community Center were looted over the holiday weekend by burglars who also entered a store, an industrial firm's offices and two homes. Food and equipment valued at $1205 were stolen in a burglary at Wilson school, it was reported Thursday. Entry was gained by removing a door glass to the boiler room to reach the kitchen and principal's office.

Taken were a movie projector valued at $550, a tape recorder at $165, a typewriter at $160, a film strip machine at $100, an adding machine at $210, 30 pounds of hamburger at $16, eight pounds of fish sticks at $2.58, 18 pounds of hot dogs, three loaves of bread and two dozen ice cream bars.

Madison police were investigating today a break-in at Dunbar school in which three small boys, 9, 10 and 11 years old, were caught by Venice police after two older youths had fled the scene.

Venice officers Joseph Meehan and John Crook said they received a call to the school about 8:30 p.m. yesterday. They arrived to see a boy climb through a broken window and run. Meehan gave chase, but lost sight of the boy who he was 9 and lived in the 1100 block of Douglas street.

Madison juvenile officer William Fanning said two older boys who were reported to have stolen several items from the cafeteria building and who fled before officers arrived, are being sought.

Church Office Looted
Burglars made off with a typewriter and a small air conditioning unit in the office of Pastor Carl Watkins at the Third Baptist Church, 26th street and Grand avenue, it was reported.

IOUs May Solve GC Payroll Problem

Could Save Interest On Tax Warrant; Use 'Untouchable' Surplus

NORMAN KNIFFEN
N. E. Kniffen, 89, Spanish-American War Veteran, Dies

A temporary solution to the city's financial problem that will enable payroll to be met this month was disclosed Friday by Granite City Mayor Partney.

He explained that the available funds will cover only the payroll, and that firms doing business with the city will be advised they will not be paid until July.

Mayor Partney said the city could take a cue from the fiscal operations of the federal government and issue IOUs on balances in non-transferable accounts, thus using otherwise unavailable surplus money and save the city the 5% interest charge on borrowed money.

The council last Monday had asked the mayor to sign a $100,000 tax anticipation warrant to borrow that amount at 5% interest. "I've said it before, and I'll say it again—I'll never be a part of the city's borrowing money and using taxpayers' money to pay interest," Partney repeated Friday.

New Tax Arrives
He added that receipt of a $51,000 city sales tax last week, coupled with $20,000 in the state income tax and the city's reserve balance of $20,927 in the sales tax reserve should be able to cover the June 15 payroll.

Mr. Kniffen was born in Belleville, Ill., and lived here 65 years. He was a member of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Susan Kniffen; a son, Charles Warnock, who is with the Army at San Antonio, Tex.; a daughter, Mrs. Glenn (Vilma) Harris of Granite City; a sister, Mrs. Lee Ann Boswell of Memphis, Tenn.; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are being made today in the city's funeral home.

Bank Promotes Flag Campaign

The First Granite City National Bank is distributing 5000 lapel flags to Quad-Cityans visiting the bank in a program supported by local veteran, civic, labor and military organizations.

In a special ceremony on Thursday, the first lapel flag was presented to Col. Ned R. Dickson, commander of the Granite City Army Depot, by Mrs. Sandy Innes, a bank employee, in a ceremony in the bank lobby.

P. H. Lichtenberger, bank president, said, "If we run out of the small flags, and we hope we do, we'll get more of them. These days, the highly vocal minority who organize and lead demonstrations who too often degenerate into riots with wholesale destruction of property and the needless taking of lives, seem to lose track of the original purpose of their protest," the bank president said.

"Unfortunately their actions go far beyond their avowed purpose and encourage disrespect of our laws, our country and our flag. This we condemn and we urge the great silent majority to join us in this condemnation and to evidence love and respect for our country and our flag by a public display of our flag," Lichtenberger said.

Openings for Students

Venice-Lincoln Offers Full Summer Schedule

Day and evening classes at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center will continue during the summer months, Duane K. Rankin, VLTIC administrator, announced today. Starting this week, several courses will be recycled through, with openings available for new students.

Quad-City adults interested in registering for day or evening study sessions may call the Venice-Lincoln Center, at 876-7792.

An extended child care program is available to student parents attending the vocational training school during the summer session, Rankin explained. Children up to 14 years whose parents attend class may take part in an all-around summer program which includes recreational, cultural and academic activities, the school official said.

Several activities offered the youngsters are through the Venice city recreation program, Rankin said. Children of public aid recipients are cared for through the program without charge, with non-recipients parents paying a minimum fee for the service.

Air-Conditioned
Nearly all classrooms at the

Venice-Lincoln Center are now air conditioned, the administrator reported, noting this convenience is a contributing factor which enabled the school to change its operation to a year-around basis.

Three buses will continue to provide student transportation daily, and lunches will be served in the cafeteria at noon, Rankin added.

A modified summer class schedule was started at the Venice Lincoln Center in August last year, but the adult training program was only expanded to include evening sessions in February.

The full daytime schedule—Mondays through Fridays—will include courses in General Educational Development, basic academic subjects, business education, family living and basic industrial skills.

High School Credits
As an added incentive this term, Rankin explained, adult students may obtain high school credits in specific courses, leading to the award of a high school diploma, as opposed to a GED certificate.

Beginning tomorrow evening, evening classes will be held each Tuesday and Thursday from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the center. Subjects available are basic GED preparation, social studies and history, mathematics, language arts, Home Maintenance and Repair and Family Living.

It was noted that the main purpose of Family Living course is preparing the student as a responsible homemaker and parent and not for commercial employment, although various segments in the course may be utilized in advancing oneself to a better job, Rankin said.

No Tuition
No tuition is charged. Quad-City residents taking part in the Venice-Lincoln Center program with textbooks and other course materials provided free.

Students are expected to furnish their own items used in various projects connected with the family living course, which includes basic sewing skills, and the home maintenance and repair class.

The latter course offers variety of practical knowledge, specifically in the area of minor repair work, painting, remodeling and material selection.

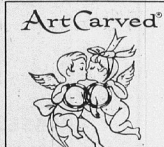

Those with family commitments which prevent them from attending day classes, as well as persons holding day jobs, are invited to enroll in the evening program, Rankin said.

Preparations are under way to incorporate a revolutionary type instruction program at the adult center, hopefully by next fall, the administrator said. The new course, "Educational Enterprise" is based on the concept of students learning to manufacture, sell and market a specific product.

The instruction program, which Rankin described as "the brain-child" of two SIU-Carbondale educators, is expected to be incorporated into the high school level curriculum in several school districts.

Truckers in New Effort to Switch Union Membership

A move by about 75 truck drivers formerly employed by the M. C. Slater trucking firm in Granite City will renew their efforts this week to transfer their union membership from Teamsters Union Local 525 to Teamsters Local 600 in St. Louis, Hubert Henry, spokesman for the drivers, reported Friday.

Henry, who led a delegation of truckers in a confrontation last week with William Doty, business agent of Local 525 at the Alton Teamsters Union headquarters, said he and other representatives of the group are scheduled to meet early this week, possibly today, with a representative of the International Teamsters Union.

In their meeting with Doty last week, Henry and the other truckers demanded their release from Local 525 on grounds that the union had not been aggressive enough in negotiating settlement of a dispute with the Slater firm after, Henry claimed, a situation arose in which truck drivers employed by the Slater firm were being denied seniority rights.

Says Contract Settled
Doty denied the request and later contended the move was an effort by Henry to recruit truckers for membership in the St. Louis local. Doty pointed out that contract issues were settled by the recent approval of a new national contract.

Henry, however, said the dispute at the M. C. Slater firm did not grow out of differences over specific contract terms but resulted from action by the company lowering the percentage payment for use of tractors by truckers who furnish their own rigs. This occurred about ten days prior to the strike by St. Louis Local 600 members that tied up over-the-road freight movements for more than a month.

According to Henry, all truckers working for the Slater firm were notified that a new lease agreement providing a 2% cut in the lease fee for truckers using their own equipment would be initiated. Henry said the truckers refused to sign the new lease agreement and attempted to negotiate the issue.

Taken off Payroll
A few days later, he said, the truckers were notified that since they had not signed new agreements and had not worked, the company considered them as having voluntarily quit their jobs, and that they no longer were on the payroll.

More recently, Henry said, about 50 of the drivers who were employed by the Slater firm have received letters offering them jobs on the basis of "new employees." Henry added that this was one of the major points discussed with Doty in last week's meeting. The delegation asked Doty if the men could return to work with full seniority. Henry said. He added that Doty replied that Slater refused.

M. C. Slater, operator of the trucking firm, said the dispute involved refusal by the truck drivers to sign the new national contract in its entirety. He said that his former employees went out on strike "like those in the St. Louis area," and that he did send the men registered "voluntary quit letters."

Under the contract, Slater said, this means that employment is terminated unless the workers receiving such letters take exception within ten days through union procedure. He said none of the drivers took exception within the ten days, "and none of them ever have filed exception."

Slater confirmed that he since has sent letters inviting about 50 of his former employees to return to their jobs as new employees.

According to Slater, any difference in the lease payments for truckers using their own

Traffic Accident

An accident at Seventh street and Madison avenue Saturday evening involved autos driven by Donald Macke, 2211 Bern avenue, and Daniel Bargiel, 1102 State street.

Probation Modified, Youth Goes to Prison

The probation of David Ely, 17, of 2839 Denver street, was modified last week by Circuit Court Judge James O. Monroe, who ordered him to spend 60 days in the state prison farm at Vandalia for violation of the terms of probation.

The state had sought a revocation of probation. Ely was arrested last December on a charge of aggravated battery in the stabbing of a Granite City man.

In another case last week, Charles T. Howland of Granite City pleaded guilty to charges of burglary and theft as a jury was being picked. A pre-sentence report was ordered for tomorrow.

Lawyer Referral Aid Starts Today in State

The Illinois State Bar Association launched a new public service program today designed to make legal services more readily available to individuals and families in Illinois, Henry L. Pitts of Chicago, ISBA president, announced.

Pitts said the new program, the Illinois Lawyer Referral Service, will make it much easier for citizens in more than 85 counties not presently served by any lawyer referral office to be able to contact a lawyer.

The ISBA president pointed out a definite need for the program. "There are more than three million people in these counties who do not have the benefit of a local lawyer referral system of their own," he said.

A direct telephone line has been installed at ISBA headquarters in Springfield which can be dialed from anywhere in Illinois. The number is 252-8016, which also can be obtained by dialing information.

When a person dials this number, the Lawyer Referral Service receptionist will refer him to a lawyer in his own community or the lawyer will arrange for an office conference at a time suitable to the caller, Pitts said.

The charge for the conference, which is limited to 30 minutes, will be no more than $10, Pitts said.

The new service is especially designed to help individuals who can't afford the services of a lawyer, he said. The fee for any additional legal services following the first conference will be the lawyer's usual charge. The client himself makes the decision as to whether he should consult the lawyer a second time after the initial conference.

An appeal for administrative review on the liquor license revocation for the Starlight club in Madison is set for 9 a.m. Tuesday in Madison county circuit court in Edwardsville. ## SIU Recruiting Faculty For New Medical School

Southern Illinois University's Infant School of Medicine is preparing to greet its first class of clinical students at Springfield, Ill., in 1973.

Approved by the legislature last year as Illinois' second state-supported medical school, the SIU program will be based at the Carbondale campus with the heart of the operation in Springfield.

Memorial and St. John's Hospitals of Springfield, totaling 1400 beds, will form the nucleus of SIU's School of Medicine, and Dean Richard H. Moy is now working with the administration and staffs of both in a search for faculty candidates.

Springfield physicians are aiding in the search for chairmen to organize and head the school's major departments: medicine, surgery, pediatrics, obstetrics, psychiatry, family practice, pathology, radiology and anesthesiology.

Also being sought are key faculty members to oversee four other phases of the medical school's planned operation. These include coordination of the first-stage basic science program at Carbondale with the clinical phase at Memorial and St. John's; study of the health care delivery system and its sociological aspects; a continuing education program for practicing physicians, and a medical information center possibly equipped with two-way television and computer access to provide quick information to regional doctors and students on specific case questions.

The University's timetable calls for the first medical class to start at Carbondale in 1972, arriving in Springfield the following year to begin a three-year clinical program toward a medical degree. The state has asked SIU to graduate 50 doctors a year from that time on.

Granco Products Used In Chicago Building

More than one million square feet of Cofar, a combined concrete form and reinforcement sheet marketed by Granco Steel Products, a subsidiary of Granite City Steel Co., is going into construction of a 35-story office building in Chicago's downtown loop district. In addition, a quantity of Granco Roof Deck sheets also will be used in the structure.

The building at first was designed to be built with conventional reinforced concrete slabs on a steel frame, but the advantages of C2 Cofar construction influenced a change by the developer to Granco's design, according to an article in The Mill, Granite City Steel Co. plant publication.

All gauges of C2 Cofar will be used in the 1.1 million square feet of the product being used in the office tower construction, a total of about 120 tons. About six tons of the roof deck also will be used. First shipments are scheduled to be made this week.

A rigid schedule has been set for erecting the building — two floors a week — with completion set for the spring of 1971.

'Copter Gunner Earns 2 Awards in Vietnam

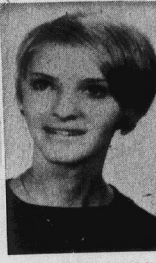

Army Sp/4 Richard W. Denny, 20, recently was awarded the Army Commendation Medal and the Air Medal while serving at Camp Eagle, near the Laotian border, in Vietnam. The serviceman's mother, Mrs. Betty Fulmer, 136 Kirkpatrick Homes, received the medals last week.

Complete details of the action in which Sp/4 Denny earned the awards was not learned by Mrs. Fulmer, who reported that her son was hospitalized several days in Vietnam, "in a state of shock," following two rocket attacks on Camp Eagle. The attacks occurred two weeks ago.

Sp/4 Denny, a gunner on a helicopter gunship, has been taking part in assault missions in the vicinity of the Laotian border. He wrote of the severity of the North Vietnamese rocket attacks on the U.S. Army base which, he said, resulted in him earning the Commendation Medal and "putting me in the hospital."

The soldier also commented that he was unable to recall several details about the incident. "It still upsets me to talk or write about it and I would think twice before doing it again," he added.

Sp/4 Denny enlisted in the service on Nov. 30, 1968. He

State Election in Non-Presidential Year is Proposed

The Illinois Constitutional Convention has approved on first reading an Executive committee proposal that calls for the election of state officers in non-presidential election years.

Ray Johnson of Troy, 3rd senatorial district delegate to the convention, reported today. Johnson said the changed election date was favored because it will allow voters to expect and receive more emphasis and attention on state issues and permit candidates to focus on state issues without competition from the presidential campaign.

The proposal calls for election of a governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state and comptroller (state auditor) to be elected in 1972 for a four-year term, in 1976 for a two-year term and in 1978 and every four years thereafter. The treasurer would be elected in 1974, in 1978 and every four years thereafter.

The proposal also substitutes the office of comptroller for that of auditor of public ac-

The only movement on this unique rigging will come as a result of the movements and actions of the two intrepid aerialists.

counts, Johnson said, because and in event the governor is the term more aptly fits the office which will function at the governor, attorney general, secretary of state and then as provided by present law.

EARL says...

Drove to Cleveland last week to pick up my son from school. (ILLINOIS was good enough for me). Ohio was most scenic with rolling hills lush with wood and bush, all a very, very green, and most of all, lots of streams and rivers and lakes... Streams & rivers & lakes... next time I stop to fish, dog gone it.

On the way, I told my wife that I just sold another Lawrence Fish Lo-K-Tor sonar device. She said she couldn't understand why so many fishermen would buy an article that lists for $169.50 just to use for fishing. I explained to her that basically there are four unknowns when you fish: Do you have the right lure? Is it the right color? Are you fishing the proper depth? And, are there any fish there now? With the Lawrence Fish Lo-K-Tor you know if fish are there, and at what depth. Thus you have eliminated two unknowns, and furthermore, you can judge the approximate size of the fish which can be a help in selecting the right lure. Being a reasonable woman, she seemed satisfied with the answer. So if your wife is the agreeable type, come on in to EARL's Sports Discount Store, and I'll give you up to you can start bragging about your big catches, too.

THAT'S EARL, BROTHER...

Warriors Preparing for State Baseball Contest

Granite City high school will face Lane Tech, the Chicago city champion, in the quarter-finals of the state baseball tournament at Bradley University's field in Peoria at 4 p.m. Thursday.

Lane Tech, with a 2-6 record, will test the Warriors' 17-game winning streak part of a 25-6 GCHS overall record.

Other quarterfinals Thursday will match Bloomington (21-4) against Elgin (17-3) at 9:30 a.m., Bradley Bourbonnais (15-7) against Meridian (20-1) at 11:30 a.m. and Pekin (18-9) against Morton East of suburban Chicago (18-4) at 2 p.m.

Semifinals will be Friday at 9:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. The final for the state crown is to start at 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Some observers, using the recent years trend of Chicago area schools' power at state meets as a partial guide, name Morton East as the favorite. The Granite City-Lane Tech victory may make the Morton East-Pekin victor in semifinals.

Lane Tech is expected to pick up its lead from Dussak, on the mound. He boasts a 7-1 record and is backed by sophomores Fred Grabham, who is credited with seven wins and 40 losses.

Mark Wronkiewicz, Tech first baseman, is hitting at a .368 clip for Lane. Cleanup batter and catcher Larry Swakon has a .305 average.

Lane's Coach Ed Papicki, who attended last year's state tournament only as a spectator, has called his team "the best I've coached at Lane Tech, but as good as any I saw last year."

This will be Papicki's fourth competitive visit to state in 12 years as a head coach. He also went with teams in 1960, '65 and '68. Only in 1960 did one of his teams win a game at state.

Since 1944, Lane Tech has made eight trips to state, earning an 8-6 tournament record and winning the championship in 1956.

Granite City won the crown in 1948 and also made visits in 1950 and 1963, for a 5-3 record in four state tournaments.

Elgin's top hurler, Rich DeMay, is toting an 8-1 record and a superb 0.619 ERA. Elgin will probably be facing Bloomington's hitting pitcher Robin Cooper, who has an 11-2 log and a .330 average. Cooper, a first baseman, was not on the mound, rivals Warrior Jim Greenwald in the runs-batted-in department with 25. Greenwald has collected 26.

Zips Edge Victory In No. Classic Action

Clark's Vikings dominated Burger King 11-2, Mexican Honoraries 7-5, and Zips overcame Victory Tavern 7-5 at Worthen Park Thursday in Northern Illinois classic football league action.

Don Rains paced Clark's to a 14-7 hitting edge with three singles.

Mexican Honoraries, deficient in the hits column, managed to hold the Blues to a 2-2 tie going into an extra-inning. In the eighth, the Mexicans struck five hits and an error for five runs to take the game.

Extra-Inning Victory
Niedringhaus Methodist beat Grace Baptist 8-3, Tri-City Park beat Nemoeth Methodist 5-3 and First Assembly of God edged Pontoon Beach 8-7 in an extra-inning in Church League softball at Worthen Park Friday. Bill Lerch homered for Niedringhaus.

Rain, Mud Can't Stop Speedway, Spalding

Rain fell Friday but the Tri-City Speedway refused to be deterred by the weather.

Perturbed about being previously rained out on three of four scheduled nights of racing, a track official said Friday, "we'll race tonight no matter how late it is."

It was 9:15 p.m. before the first sprint car was on the track for a practice lap and after midnight when a mud-covered Wib Spalding won the feature event.

The rain had stopped at 7 p.m. Spectators were invited to drive their passenger cars around the oval to help iron out the slushy track.

Twenty spectators helped drive the water from the track by their autos.

When qualifying trials began, lap times averaged five or six seconds slower than on a dry track. Spalding was the top qualifier with a 26.50 clocking.

Carl were shaken into disrepair, causing the field to diminish as the night wore on.

In the feature race, the yellow flag was waved three times, the cars bunching up on each occasion. Spalding, who started at the pole position, after each

8 Jr. College Cagers Transfer to Cougars

Eight junior college basketball stars have decided to enroll at Southern Illinois University next fall, Jimmie Dudley, new variety coach of the Cougars, has announced.

Four of the eight played for Dudley at Lake Land Junior College in Matteson where the young (32) coach won 65 out of 85 games in three seasons. They are Jerry Bloomer, 6-4, from Effingham's St. Anthony high, leading rebounder this past year; Gene Bounds, 6-7, Dietrich High, second leading rebounder, Otis Ward, 6-3, from Westview high, Kaneville, the school's second highest career scorer and third best rebounder; and Denny Thronburg, 6-2, from Westfield high, who averaged 11 points a game and shot .872 from the free throw line. Thronburg will be a sophomore, while the three others will enter the junior class this fall.

Giving the Cougars some much-needed height will be 6-8 Jim Brown from Washburn Junior College, Mt. Carmel, Brown, a Chillicothe, Ill., high school graduate, led his team in rebounds and was the second best point-maker.

Three natives of Missouri are included in the eight junior college transfers. Gaudy Lightfoot, 6-2, a native of Bolivar, and John Nelson, 6-4 1/2, from St. Louis Riteour high, are both transfers from State Park Junior College, Sedalia. Tony Kraus, 6-4, a graduate of St. Louis Prep South, played the last two seasons for Meramec Junior College, St. Louis.

Lightfoot led State Park in games played, assists, free throws (136) and most points (214).

Kraus was Meramec's leading scorer with a 16.5-point-per-game average and leading rebounder with 10 per game. He was named to the junior college conference all-star team and was selected on the Region 16 all-stars.

11-1 Hurler, 26-RBI Hitter Add to GCHS Hopes in State Meet

State-bound Warrior baseballers will board a bus to Peoria at 2 p.m. Wednesday bolstered by their invincible-appearing 17-game winning string and some individual statistics that should draw moans from all their opponents.

The sight of lanky Jeff Boyles and husky Jim Greenwald should cause some mumbling among GCHS quarterfinal foes, the Chicago Lane Tech players, if they know how to hit long-legged Boyles and burly Greenwald have inflicted damage to earlier foes this season.

Boyles has notched an 11-1 record while gathering a 1.55 earned run average. He has held the mound for 22 innings, starting 12 games and pitching relief in five other contests.

Allowing only 15 runs, Boyles has sent 32 batters back to the bench on strikeouts.

Greenwald in 103 trips to the plate has muscled 26 home runs and hit 103 runs, hitting record that his powerful arms would indicate.

Greenwald has fanned 53 in 62 1/2 innings. Simpson in 53 innings has allowed only 12 walks. Tapp, who hasn't seen action since being hospitalized before the tournament series, has 33% innings.

Undefeated Ed Hagnum carries a 1.34 ERA, Ron "Deacon" Simpson 1.19 and Ned Tapp, 1.68.

Hagnum has fanned 53 in 62 1/2 innings. Simpson in 53 innings has allowed only 12 walks. Tapp, who hasn't seen action since being hospitalized before the tournament series, has 33% innings.

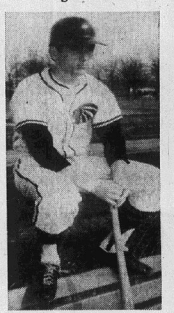

Catcher Dave Evans carries the team's second best batting average of .330. Others are just one or two hits away from boasting the average over the 300 mark: Don Harris .299, Gary Willis .296, Jerry "Mono" Monahan .293 and Rich Schardan .292.

Harris is the No. 1 scorer,

Mercer Bats Top Bellemore

Mercer ended Bellemore Sporting Goods' 4-2 lead and won 12-4 in Inter-City Baseball League action at Wilson Park Sunday.

"In other Inter-City play, Collinsville won 5-1 at Maryville and Highland bowed 3-0 at East Alton."

Loop standings are now: East Alton 6-1, Mercer 4-2, Maryville 4-3, Collinsville 3-4, Highland 2-4 and Bellemore 0-6.

Collinsville won with Bruce Thompson, just returning from a successful season of pitching for SIU-SW. He faced ten, giving up three hits. Only two out had to be handled by his outfielders.

Thompson helped himself with a hit and crossed the plate for Collinsville's first run. Later, he stroked an RBI single.

Mercer collected 12 hits as Bob Finke pitched the distance for the win. Steve Schardan caught the first four innings and Roger Belshe, another returnee from SIU-SW caught the remainder of the game. Finke allowed four hits.

Bellemore used four hurlers: Steve Conway for 3 1/2 innings, Charles Stephens for 1 1/2, Greg Wasylak 1 1/2 and Bob Petroski 1/2.

Mercer scored in the second and fourth, while Bellemore garnered a run in the third and went ahead in the sixth.

In the top of the sixth, Nick Jarvis singled, Benny Smith knocked into a fielder's choice and Larry Dillard walked. Singles followed from Bix Cox for a run and Conway for two runs.

In the bottom of the sixth, Mercer broke loose for five runs and a 7-4 edge. Harold Tanksley walked, Belshe singled a run home, Paul Kacera walked, loading the bases, and Bob Finke walked to send another run home. Bob Ketter ripped a three-RBI triple.

Mercer added three runs in the seventh and two in the eighth.

For Mercer, Brown batted 3-for-4 with three RBIs. Ketter collected two hits, including his triple, Larry Corey drove in two runs and Finke and Tanksley each earned an RBI.

A CUT IN PAY

That's what the Federal government is telling Granite City.

While we hear and read of tremendous waste by Uncle Sam in other part of the country — Atlanta depot surplus of B.C. pills and Mercocets — A Federal office in St. Louis is being located in more expensive (plus) accommodations than are available — we are asked to tighten our belts.

Noticeable by their absence — Senator Barry (at C.C.A.D.) and Senator Kent State but not at Ralph Smith.

Thank God we still have Mel Price.

But he can't do it alone; nor can SODA or any other faction group. We need to pull together to save the Army Depot and prevent Washington from cutting our Paydays.

Rose Will Try 100-Mile Run at HS Saturday

Rick Rose, Granite City high school track team distance runner, will make an attempt to run 100 miles in less than 24 hours at the GCHS stadium starting at 6 p.m. Saturday.

He made a similar attempt last summer but a pulled muscle and cramps stopped him after 14 1/2 miles.

Confident that he is in much better condition, Rose has planned a grueling 24 hour schedule for himself.

During each of the first two hours he intends to cover seven miles, running five miles and jogging the other two.

Six miles in each of the second two hours and five in each of the third two hours are planned. This early quick pace is to allow for tiring, the probable heat during the day Sunday and for any other problems that may occur.

Rose will have three meals during the 24 hour period consisting of honey, tea and a banana. He plans to eat a banana every two hours. Rose is now 18 years old.

Keith Parker, Granite City high school head track coach, will be chief timer for the Saturday-Sunday venture. Board of education Secretary Donald Stucke will assist in keeping records. GCHS distance runner Jim McDuffey will for intervals help Rose to help keep a consistent pace.

May Rainfall 2.90 Inches; Year's Total Below Normal

Weekend rains brought to 2.90 inches the total rainfall in the Quad-City area for May, with the overall total 43.3 inches less than the normal May fall of 3.73 inches, according to records at the Chain of Rocks locks.

A total of .38 inch fell Saturday and Sunday, with only .03 inch recorded Saturday and the other .35 inch recorded yesterday. ## Campus Rioters Should Pay for Damage-Smith

U. S. Senator Ralph T. Smith said Sunday that campus rioters should be held financially liable for damages they have caused on campuses and in nearby college communities.

"It would be the height of irresponsibility to allow these brick-throwing, fire-bombing radicals—many of whom are not even students—to escape the consequences of their violence," he told a news conference in Belvidere.

Smith said rioters arrested and then coddled after a fair trial should be made to share the burden of replacing or repairing facilities and equipment. "Unfortunately, the damages wrought by this destructive minority will in many cases be borne by the taxpayers who are already paying so much to provide facilities for higher education."

He commended the administration at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, where students have been told to stop school riots. He said they will end up paying for the riot damages "in one way or another." An NIU official said last week that "either through reduced school programs, or through reduced enrollment or by direct charges" the bulk of the estimated $230,000 needed for repairs will be supplied by the student body.

Keep Universities Operating
"It is also completely unacceptable that the education of the great majority be interrupted by the systematic violence of the minority, which has intimidated a number of weak-willed administrators" to the point where classes are suspended and schools are closed."

Holiday Restlessness Reflected on Police Book

Youths kept Granite City police busy during the Memorial Day holiday, creating disturbances as well as prowling, window tapping and taking a 3 p.m. dip in a private swimming pool.

The police log book contained a long list of complaints. In most instances the gangs were "broken up" and sent home. The initial entry to start off the Memorial Day morning did not involve juveniles, however. Police were advised a man was chasing a woman in the vicinity of 20th street and Delmar avenue. Investigating officers reported they "settled their differences."

A motorcycle that had broken down was found abandoned in the 2300 block of Iowa street at 9:30 a.m., and another adult disturbance "was straightened out" in the 2200 block of Cleveland blvd.

At 5:45 p.m., a juvenile was caught shoplifting at Grant's store, and an hour later police were notified a group of youths was roaming through the new wing at the hospital. They fled before officers arrived.

The log at 7 p.m. recorded a disturbance by youngsters in the 2400 block of Delmar avenue, and at 8 p.m., boys were seen playing in a bus at Frohardt school. The youngsters fled before officers arrived.

At 9:30, boys were reported prowling around Grace Baptist Church, 2800 Edwards street, and at 10 p.m., a boy was spotted on the fire escape at Sacred Heart school. He took refuge before police reached the school.

Window tappers were reported at 10:15 p.m. in the 2500 block of East 24th street; and a brief respite from youthful activities was recorded at 10:45—a noisy motorcycle in the 2200 block of Delmar avenue and at 11 p.m., a "hot rod" near Niedringhaus and Edison avenues. Both got away.

Holiday Restlessness Reflected on Police Book

Youths kept Granite City police busy during the Memorial Day holiday, creating disturbances as well as prowling, window tapping and taking a 3 p.m. dip in a private swimming pool.

The police log book contained a long list of complaints. In most instances the gangs were "broken up" and sent home. The initial entry to start off the Memorial Day morning did not involve juveniles, however. Police were advised a man was chasing a woman in the vicinity of 20th street and Delmar avenue. Investigating officers reported they "settled their differences."

A motorcycle that had broken down was found abandoned in the 2300 block of Iowa street at 9:30 a.m., and another adult disturbance "was straightened out" in the 2200 block of Cleveland blvd.

At 5:45 p.m., a juvenile was caught shoplifting at Grant's store, and an hour later police were notified a group of youths was roaming through the new wing at the hospital. They fled before officers arrived.

The log at 7 p.m. recorded a disturbance by youngsters in the 2400 block of Delmar avenue, and at 8 p.m., boys were seen playing in a bus at Frohardt school. The youngsters fled before officers arrived.

At 9:30, boys were reported prowling around Grace Baptist Church, 2800 Edwards street, and at 10 p.m., a boy was spotted on the fire escape at Sacred Heart school. He took refuge before police reached the school.

Window tappers were reported at 10:15 p.m. in the 2500 block of East 24th street; and a brief respite from youthful activities was recorded at 10:45—a noisy motorcycle in the 2200 block of Delmar avenue and at 11 p.m., a "hot rod" near Niedringhaus and Edison avenues. Both got away.

Public Forum Set Wednesday On Depot Closing

Quad-city residents are invited to hear a report on the current status, accomplishments and future activities planned by Save Our Depot Association (SODA), at a special public meeting, set for 8 p.m. Wednesday at Granite City high school auditorium.

In announcing the public forum, Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, U. S. Army (ret.), SODA executive vice-president, today stated, "With each passing day we are becoming more and more optimistic with chances for success in our efforts to keep the Depot open."

The former Depot command added that several governmental leaders invited to take part in Wednesday's meeting will discuss aspects of the Army's plans to close the local military installation and explain the activities of SODA and its objectives.

"We urge all Quad-Cityans interested in retaining the Depot here to attend the community-wide meeting," the executive director said.

Pontoon Tavern Liquor License Is Suspended

The liquor license for Johnnie's Continental lounge, 500 Lakeview drive, was suspended for seven days Thursday by the Madison county liquor control commission on charges by neighbors of continuous disturbances.

John R. Oldham, the tavern operator, is to appear before the commission on Thursday to show cause why his liquor license should not be further suspended or revoked.

A petition signed by 40 residents of the area complained of conditions at the tavern which they claimed included foul language and immoral activities which disrupted the neighborhood at night.

MORE ABOUT Larger Crowds

from our hearts and minds individually the "good or desire for property of another. That our leaders throughout the world in this world — in a world free of wars forever."

"And that we as individuals dedicate ourselves towards helping those in distress; those who suffer social injustices; those who are being treated unfairly by our leaders."

"When we can do all this, and when other communities throughout the world can emulate our example, then and only then, can people live with peace in peace and nations live in this world — in a world free of wars forever."

Col. Hoskin was introduced by Mrs. Gussie Cheatham, secretary of Tent 90 who presided for the ceremony. The colonel's address was interrupted momentarily when a youth, James Howell, 18, of 204 Fourteenth street, commander of the Post 113 Sons of the Legion, fainted while standing at attention. The youth, who has a heart ailment, was to have served as an escort. He was taken by ambulance to the hospital and transferred to Missouri Baptist Hospital where his physician is on the staff.

Rutledge Speaks. Alderman Paul Rutledge, representing Mayor Partney, noted that "this year we seem just a little farther away from peace than last year."

"We can end war only by returning to God," he added. Prayers were given by Capt. Harold Thomas of the Salvation Army and Rev. John Polizzi of the Tri-City Park Tabernacle. Patriotic songs and hymns were sung by the Gospel choir.

Sons of the Legion, who raised the flag to start the ceremony, escorted officials of veterans organizations to place flags at the Memorial stone.

The services were opened by her brother, Kenneth Hinson, post adjutant, and the prayers were by Fred Honerkamp, post chaplain. There was an address of welcome by Commander John Brink.

Magic was furnished by the Venice school band, with Taps played by Robert Dixon and Jack Baustine. Wreaths were placed at the tomb by Mrs. Ina Campbell, president of the Auxiliary; Mrs. Mary Lou McKinney, sergeant-at-arms, and Mrs. Dorothy Vastoff, chaplain.

Special guests included DAV Commander William Bratten, members of the Navy Mothers, VFW Auxiliary President Margaret Johnson, Frank Stemann and Pat Lindsey of the World War One Veterans, and Gold Star Mothers and their husbands. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallen and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Freise and Mrs. Mary Connolly, Mrs. Jimmie Mayes and Mrs. Altha Roland.

Other guests included Jack Tolliver and Boy Scout Troop One and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foote and Cub Scout Pack 107, who participated in the ceremony, and Walter (Buck) Simmons, clerk of the Appellate Court, who placed a wreath on the John F. Kennedy memorial stone.

placed on the city hall lawn by the DUV in 1935. Units represented were American Legion Posts 113 and 307 and Auxiliaries, VFW Post 1300 and Auxiliary, Quad-City Navy Mothers, Post 850; Amvets Post 51 and Auxiliary; World War I Veterans Barracks 34 and Auxiliary; DAV Chapter 85 and Auxiliary and DUV Tent 90 and Mrs. Augusta Munsterman.

Most of those at the city hall went to Memorial Park to join persons gathered for the DAV "Parade of Flags," and upon completion of that ceremony, many went to the Venice-Madison American Legion home for the 11 a.m. ceremony on the lawn where 374 crosses formed a miniature Arlington National Cemetery before the replica of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Each white cross bore a flag and a poppy.

Miss Hinson stressed patriotism in her talk.

Grand Opening At Gaslight Walk Planned June 17

Grand Opening ceremonies for the Tom Boy market and P. N. Hirsch store at the Gaslight Walk shopping center at Pontoon Beach have been scheduled for 10 a.m. Wednesday, June 17, it announced today.

A third retail outlet, a new Rexall Drug store, may join in the program, according to a spokesman for the Jim Green Construction Co., developers of the shopping center. A contract with Rexall Drug Co. to operate a store in the center was announced today, but operators of the drug outlet have not yet been identified, according to the spokesman.

A new blacktop surface was applied to the parking lot area during the past few weeks to complete the construction work in the shopping area. Work also is progressing on the new Gnomes Theater adjacent to the shopping center.

A ribbon cutting and other events are being planned for the grand opening and will open the shopping center. A week-long program of events and special sales also will be conducted to mark the event. Granite City and Pontoon Beach officials and Chamber of Commerce representatives will be invited to participate in the June 17 events.

Bubblemaster Divers Top Alton in Contest

For the second consecutive year, the Bubblemasters Scuba Diving Club of Granite City won a traveling trophy from the Alton Masketeers Diving Club in the annual inter-club Memorial Day weekend spearfishing contest at Pontiac Boat Dock, Bull Shoals Lake, Mo.

The three-day event attracted 79 competing divers from the two clubs, with Bill Brannan of the Bubblemasters spearfishing on-pond, three-ounce carp to capture the trophy for the Granite City club. In addition to the award, the losing group is required to host a fish fry for the winning club.

More than 100 divers and their families took part in the holiday weekend outing. Also highlighting the weekend was an underwater treasure hunt, sponsored by the East Side Diving Shop of Granite City.

Competitors sought "play money" in water-tight containers hidden in cave areas. Divers finding the loot were permitted to bid for diving equipment, auctioned at a Wiener roast Saturday evening. John Nichols of the Bubblemasters, won a diving tank.

Another high spot, was the spearing of a 63-pound snapping turtle by Rich Grizzard of the Bubblemasters. The Granite City diver required the assistance of five other men to land the turtle.

Dr. Chris Geroff, president of the local diving club, reminded all members to report at 7:30 p.m. today at the Waggoner Trucking Co. to decorate a float to be used by the Bubblemasters in the Shriners parade.

ACCUTRON by BULOVA

If you're giving him a watch for graduation make sure it doesn't tick

Bulova left out of Accutron the parts that make a watch run fast or slow.

The Accutron timepiece has no balance wheel, no mainspring, no hairspring. (Therefore no tick.) Instead it has a tiny, electronically-powered tuning fork. (That's what does the humming.)

The tuning fork splits a second into 360 equal parts. The best a ticking watch can do is divide a second into 5 or 10 parts.

Accutron time is so nearly perfect that Bulova guarantees monthly accuracy to within 60 seconds!

It's a particularly good gift for the graduate who has everything except the right time of day.

Weekenders Services Planned at Church

First Assembly of God, 24th street and Grand avenue, will inaugurate a new summer series beginning Thursday, June 4.

Rev. Allen Groff, pastor, said, "Knowing that many families that normally would be in Sunday worship services are out-of-town on summer weekends, we feel there is no need to penalize those people who feel their need of getting away for recreation and rest. With these people in mind we are beginning a series we will designate as 'Weekenders' starting each Thursday throughout the summer, ending on the first Thursday in September."

According to the pastor, the service will be of one hour duration and will feature special musical productions by the choir, the "New Life Singers," and various ensembles. One added feature of the summer of Weekenders will be an instrumental duet by the two ministers, Rev. Groff, and Charles Swick, with the former at the piano and Mrs. Swick at the organ.

Citizens of all faiths throughout the Quad-City area are invited to participate in these services if they plan on being out of the city on weekends.

Rev. Groff also has announced that the services are designed in no way to "proselyte" converts, but rather to provide a weekly worship.

Rate of Crime Rise Being Slowed

By HERBERT G. KLEIN
Director of Communications, U.S. Executive Branch

Ramsey Clark, U. S. Attorney General under LBJ, still asserts that he is the leading spokesman of opposition to the Nixon-Mitchell program to fight crime with weapons geared to the '70s.

The question before Congress is whether it will support the advice of Mr. Clark or Attorney General John N. Mitchell.

Under Mr. Clark, the Justice Department placed more stress on the social aspects, and the federal will to inspire tougher law enforcement suffered from "benign neglect."

Passage of crime enforcement bills will not change the picture overnight, but it will start the nation on the path toward greater public safety.

It will provide an important psychological boost to law enforcement forces, who presently seem to be the victims, verbally and physically, of increasing abuse.

It will give law enforcement the use of the tools it needs to protect our citizens. It will not infringe on our basic freedoms, as has been asserted.

The importance of the psychology and attitude of the American public and of the law enforcement agencies toward crime, starting with the Justice Department, can be seen in preliminary reports on crime statistics during the past year.

Crime still is increasing dangerously fast. But the rate of increase in 1969, the first Nixon year, was 11%, a dramatic decrease below the record figure of 17% in 1968 and 10% in 1967, the two Ramsey Clark years.

In street crime, the rate of increase dropped to 13% in 1969. The increase rate in 1968 was 29%, and in 1967, 25%.

The rates of increase during the last two years of the Clark administration in the Justice Department were the highest in history.

Mr. Clark speaks best for the victims of crime, Mr. Clark or Mr. Mitchell? Congress must decide.

SODA BOARD INCLUDES WORKERS, VETERANS

To the Editor:

Does Mayor Partney want to keep the Depot open, or is he working for its closure? I would like to see that it is closed?

From his statement made in the May 21 issue of the Press-Record one gets the impression that he and "this committee" are more interested in seeing the Depot closed.

Our Mayor made a big issue of the fact that his "committee" represents a cross section of the area interests. Such "interest" should be identified to the public but since he did not, I should like to take this opportunity to advise the public that his "committee" consists of a representative from the Army Depot, (which is forbidden to talk in favor of keeping the Depot open), a contractor, a representative of Illinois Power Co., the publisher of the Press-Record, Chamber of Commerce, three aldermen, a notary, an architect, and a representative of the Housing and School Boards. (These men with high sounding titles represent a "cross section of the community" then we voters, taxpayers, and workers have been fooled for years.

Conspicuously absent from the "Mayor's Committee" are leaders from Union groups, representatives of the Depot employees, and their families which would be affected by the Depot's closure. Also absent are representatives of Veterans organizations, ladies organizations, small businesses, minority groups, employment organizations, representatives from other surrounding communities, or a representative from the City of Granite City which would be affected by the closure order.

One only needs to review the membership list of SODA's Executive Board to find that these missing segments of the community are included in that organization's make-up, plus Alderman Nomm, who is the City's representative on the SODA Board and also serves on the Mayor's "Committee."

I further question the Mayor's motives because of his statements quoted in the press concerning how the Depot facilities could be used in the future. He said that "these large warehouses are dehumidified, and could be used for a variety of uses in the future. The Granite City Port Authority also could enter into the picture." At the same time, the Mayor stated that he "liked what Senator Ralph Smith had said, that the industrial park, the three story barracks could be used as utilization of other buildings for a large City Hall as well as other municipal facilities."

Later in the same statement the Mayor added that "there are numerous shops and stores in the area, and the concentration of them could be converted for use by smaller businesses and industries and the area around the Depot leads right to the Depot gate—that's another asset."

I ask you fellow citizens, are we not being fed with double talk? Does the Mayor in his article of May 21, combined with the facts included in this letter, sound like a man who wants to keep the Depot open?

Clerk Resignation Indicates City Needs to Consider Public's Needs Ahead of Politics

The surprise resignation of City Clerk Homer "Cal" Pendleton serves as its own comment on the factionalism that has developed in the Granite City municipal government.

His brief letter gave no details, but the message it seemed to convey is that the election position is no longer attractive to its occupant for the past five and a quarter years.

It will be recalled that an appointee of the mayor, the comptroller, ran against Pendleton in 1969, pledging to handle the duties of both jobs and to save taxpayers one of the salaries. The clerk and other officials elected city-wide, such as the treasurer, street superintendent, supervisor and assessor, generally have been on good terms with the council majority opposed to the mayor.

The comptroller was unseated in the election. In retaliation for the competition, aldermen a short time later eliminated his job, effective on April 30, 1970.

Consolidation of the clerk-comptroller duties appeared to be a political game for the council majority, since it gave greater responsibilities and more patronage jobs (clerical assistants, bookkeepers, etc.) to their group. But the council neglected to ask the clerk whether he wanted a big expansion of his duties. He did not desire it, and a successor is likely to be chosen by the mayor for the combined position.

With the 1970-71 fiscal year only a month old, annual statistical and financial reports being prepared, the two offices still in the process of being merged, and the introduction of a new tax levy and a detailed budget required within a few weeks, the outlook is not rosy—for whoever becomes clerk, or for the city.

Once news related that persons close to Pendleton told of his "deep concern over the turmoil of the mayor-council feud, with the clerk's office caught in the middle of the storm."

It should be clear now to all parties that such turmoil can be carried too far, that after a while its drawbacks can begin to far outweigh its advantages. (Difference of opinion, when held within reasonable bounds serve to keep all officials on their toes and operating efficiently).

Many share his deep concern, and they hope for more stable and less partisan leadership in their city government in the future.

29 County Board Posts Are a Few Too Many

There are good and bad aspects of the reapportionment plan drawn up by the Madison County Board of Supervisors.

It is well that the board is proceeding this year, rather than waiting for the task to be done by a special commission, which would be created if there was no redistricting by July 1971. Unfortunately, the 29-member board decided on is the largest possible permitted under Illinois law, which specifies a 5-to-29 range.

The board was motivated by a desire to (a) protect its 279 members, (b) create board positions as possible, (c) create a board with an adequate number of members to serve on the various operating committees and (d) establish enough board positions that each member could be familiar with and responsible to a particular area of not more than 8000 to 10,000 population.

The idea of having members familiar with each area, rather than a few attempting to govern vast sections in which they are hardly acquainted, has considerable merit.

However, there is a point at which the overall size of a legislative group becomes unwieldy. And the necessity to create board member districts with precise boundaries will be very burdensome and complicated and nothing but only eight or 10 or 12 had been designated.

Unwarranted Anti-Trust Waiver for Papers Which 'Compete' by Pooling Their Revenue

(International Conference of Weekly Newspaper Editors)

Persons opposed to the "Newspaper Preservation Act," which would require newspapers to prevent adoption of this bill, the U. S. Senate overwhelmingly passed this bill and the Anti-Trust Subcommittee reported the bill out favorably. The bill is a point at which the bill is in the House Committee on the Judiciary.

This bill would provide certain anti-trust exemptions to the 44 daily newspapers which are involved in joint operations. The bill would legalize profit pooling, market splitting and "forced" advertising combination purchases, and exempt these newspapers from either criminal or civil anti-trust suits.

Provision is made for other daily newspapers to enter into joint operations without facing the threat of anti-trust action.

A major reason for the bill is joint operation newspaper owners is to avoid civil anti-trust suits from competitors and advertisers. Several millions of dollars in civil anti-trust suits have been filed against the San Francisco and Tucson newspapers.

All of these 44 newspapers face the possibility of civil anti-trust suits because the federal courts, including the U. S. Supreme Court, have declared certain aspects of joint operations to be illegal.

This bill was previously known as the "Failing Newspaper" bill, since it would exempt failing businesses already are provided relief by court decisions and legislation.

Since some of the largest chains in the country—Scripture Howard, Newsweek, Cox and Knight—are involved in joint operations, it is obvious that for them to plead bankruptcy is ludicrous. This is especially so since the major reason for their financial problems recently been increasing their conglomerate holdings.

Baseball Warriors Seeking Fourth State Athletic Championship for Their School

The best wishes of this community go with the Granite City high school baseball team, seeking championship of the state in the state tournament at Peoria Thursday and Friday.

Winners of 17 straight games, with a 26-6 season record, the Granite City team is the favorite in the "elite eight" competition because of their pitching artistry, their fielding and hitting skills and their knack of "doing their thing" at the right time, including scoring decisive runs in the late innings of close games.

A second Illinois state baseball title is a real possibility for GCHS, which holds state championships in basketball, scholastic sports, basketball and wrestling as well as baseball.

(First of two articles)

I attended the National District Attorneys Association State Conference on Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs April 12-16 in Chicago, attended by 1200 delegates. All states, Canada, Mexico and Washington, D. C., were represented.

This convention was similar to others in that some materials presented and discussed were pertinent while others seemed remote or repetitious. For the most part, however, the meetings were interesting and informative.

Informal meetings over coffee were very valuable as they conveyed the sense of national crisis that is upon us and conveyed an awareness of the scope of drug problems in various communities.

I learned that we in Granite City are living on "borrowed time" if other areas of the country are any indication of the future.

The following remarks have been gleaned from my notes. They are made by various speakers or we are conclusions drawn from available data by press releases and the like. I agree with all the statements, but I offer them for consideration.

There are a number of reasons for the increase in the use of drugs, especially marijuana, by young people today:

1. There is a disenchantment with the Vietnam war and an unwillingness to fight and perhaps die in Vietnam.

2. The harvest of young people (especially the heres they don't share with older generations, such as rock and roll, and the use of mood drugs. This is not only due to wording of various songs, but by example in their personal life styles. The Beatles, for example, are known users of marijuana.

3. There is a decrease in the number of "rights of passage" ceremonies. Eighth grade or high school graduation or passage of milestones were once an indication of accomplishment. Now, nearly everyone expects these ceremonies.

4. Many young people "pass" to adulthood by joining older friends in drug-smoking or drinking or even wild sex.

5. Our society is based on the profit motive and since half the U. S. population is under 25 years of age, competition is especially stiff.

Chances of excellence are less because of the number competing; also, chances of making a fortune have decreased because of control by large corporations and the fact that some young people are "dropouts."

6. Our society has become confused in sexual roles. We tend to have a matriarchal society and a patriarchal heritage. The styles of clothing and habits of dress indicate an unclear line of male and female roles. This "unisex" and "unisex" confusing psychology, logically, is encouraged by the young.

7. There is a strong desire to be "anti-establishment" among the young.

8. We live in a drug society that has been promoted by advances in technology which produce drugs and television which teaches us to use them. TV programs teach us that there is no need to be uncomfortable or irritable — pills to sleep, pills to relax, pills to be happy.

More than 17,000,000 Americans have smoked marijuana more than once.

Government statistics indicate a third of those presently experimenting with drugs will remain on the drug scene in some form.

Nineteen percent of Vietnam's elite troops use marijuana more than once per day. The same 19% represents the most confident members, according to tests. This group also represented some 75% of what was considered the "elite" of the war.

There are about 600 different drug substances on the American black market today.

Government testing of drug dependents concludes that there is no common cause for drug addiction.

There are as many causes as there are individuals, since man's psyche is so complex. However, government testing of dependents and persons conclude that the non-dependents had more in common than dependents, the most significant similarities being:

A. They have other passions besides drugs — hobbies, games, etc.

B. They are happy.

C. They are not lonely.

Thus, we have therapy, etc. are a part of their existence.

B. They have a concept of themselves related to the future. They have some potential plans for the future. C. They identify with at least one adult, usually a male that they respect and tend to imitate.

LSJ is on the wane. Prices in California have dropped from a high of $15 to a low of 50 cents because the demand has decreased. The reason for the decline is adequate educational information.

Unfortunately, this education did not come from the schools. It came from underground newspapers and by word of mouth because of "bad experiences" among members of the drug community. The word spread that LSD was harmful and friends warned friends against its use.

Trends in drug abuse and addiction philosophies about the remainder of the nation. School-especially universities — it was said, should approve of underground newspapers to keep in touch with a segment of society which is "established." They provide valuable information to addicts about bad trips, emergency treatment, pushers with substandard and unhealthy goods.

Schools especially universities are criticized for giving penalties for drug crimes. We should remember that the courts are treating pushers in handing out penalties for all crimes.

Judges are human and exercise their own philosophies about life. No two are the same person; no two can respond as one judge.

There tends to be a decline on drug problems in the urban ghetto areas. But there is a tremendous increase in the middle class suburban setting.

Panthers and Nationalists are doing more good in the ghetto than the police. Many are publishing information and drug warnings in the underground press. They recommend that the young spend their money in other than drug community. They give a case for reason for existence to the young.

Various government agencies, especially police and medical, are in the current drug problem a year ago. Because of public apathy, nothing was done. Much of the credit was due to the society affected. Prior to the early 1960s, the drug problem was a ghetto problem. It is now, however, a middle and upper class suburban problem and is spreading.

Confusion is the trend regarding drug problems. Knowledge should be the trend.

There are far too many self-appointed spokesmen about all problems and the drug area is no exception.

It took 9000 manhours to arrest 73 men involved in drug traffic in Washington, D. C. These 73 men represented 10% of the drug traffic in this city and some were "top men" in the organization. All are now out of jail on bail, practicing their trade.

We must have greater understanding and greater participation in the organization. All are now out of jail on bail, practicing their trade.

Councilor, Granite City High School
(First of two articles)

I attended the National District Attorneys Association State Conference on Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs April 12-16 in Chicago, attended by 1200 delegates. All states, Canada, Mexico and Washington, D. C., were represented.

This convention was similar to others in that some materials presented and discussed were pertinent while others seemed remote or repetitious. For the most part, however, the meetings were interesting and informative.

Informal meetings over coffee were very valuable as they conveyed the sense of national crisis that is upon us and conveyed an awareness of the scope of drug problems in various communities.

I learned that we in Granite City are living on "borrowed time" if other areas of the country are any indication of the future.

The following remarks have been gleaned from my notes. They are made by various speakers or we are conclusions drawn from available data by press releases and the like. I agree with all the statements, but I offer them for consideration.

There are a number of reasons for the increase in the use of drugs, especially marijuana, by young people today:

1. There is a disenchantment with the Vietnam war and an unwillingness to fight and perhaps die in Vietnam.

2. The harvest of young people (especially the heres they don't share with older generations, such as rock and roll, and the use of mood drugs. This is not only due to wording of various songs, but by example in their personal life styles. The Beatles, for example, are known users of marijuana.

3. There is a decrease in the number of "rights of passage" ceremonies. Eighth grade or high school graduation or passage of milestones were once an indication of accomplishment. Now, nearly everyone expects these ceremonies.

4. Many young people "pass" to adulthood by joining older friends in drug-smoking or drinking or even wild sex.

5. Our society is based on the profit motive and since half the U. S. population is under 25 years of age, competition is especially stiff.

Chances of excellence are less because of the number competing; also, chances of making a fortune have decreased because of control by large corporations and the fact that some young people are "dropouts."

6. Our society has become confused in sexual roles. We tend to have a matriarchal society and a patriarchal heritage. The styles of clothing and habits of dress indicate an unclear line of male and female roles. This "unisex" and "unisex" confusing psychology, logically, is encouraged by the young.

7. There is a strong desire to be "anti-establishment" among the young.

8. We live in a drug society that has been promoted by advances in technology which produce drugs and television which teaches us to use them. TV programs teach us that there is no need to be uncomfortable or irritable — pills to sleep, pills to relax, pills to be happy.

More than 17,000,000 Americans have smoked marijuana more than once.

Government statistics indicate a third of those presently experimenting with drugs will remain on the drug scene in some form.

Nineteen percent of Vietnam's elite troops use marijuana more than once per day. The same 19% represents the most confident members, according to tests. This group also represented some 75% of what was considered the "elite" of the war.

There are about 600 different drug substances on the American black market today.

Government testing of drug dependents concludes that there is no common cause for drug addiction.

There are as many causes as there are individuals, since man's psyche is so complex. However, government testing of dependents and persons conclude that the non-dependents had more in common than dependents, the most significant similarities being:

A. They have other passions besides drugs — hobbies, games, etc.

B. They are happy.

C. They are not lonely.

Thus, we have therapy, etc. are a part of their existence.

B. They have a concept of themselves related to the future. They have some potential plans for the future. C. They identify with at least one adult, usually a male that they respect and tend to imitate.

LSJ is on the wane. Prices in California have dropped from a high of $15 to a low of 50 cents because the demand has decreased. The reason for the decline is adequate educational information.

Unfortunately, this education did not come from the schools. It came from underground newspapers and by word of mouth because of "bad experiences" among members of the drug community. The word spread that LSD was harmful and friends warned friends against its use.

Trends in drug abuse and addiction philosophies about the remainder of the nation. School-especially universities — it was said, should approve of underground newspapers to keep in touch with a segment of society which is "established." They provide valuable information to addicts about bad trips, emergency treatment, pushers with substandard and unhealthy goods.

Schools especially universities are criticized for giving penalties for drug crimes. We should remember that the courts are treating pushers in handing out penalties for all crimes.

Judges are human and exercise their own philosophies about life. No two are the same person; no two can respond as one judge.

There tends to be a decline on drug problems in the urban ghetto areas. But there is a tremendous increase in the middle class suburban setting.

Panthers and Nationalists are doing more good in the ghetto than the police. Many are publishing information and drug warnings in the underground press. They recommend that the young spend their money in other than drug community. They give a case for reason for existence to the young.

Various government agencies, especially police and medical, are in the current drug problem a year ago. Because of public apathy, nothing was done. Much of the credit was due to the society affected. Prior to the early 1960s, the drug problem was a ghetto problem. It is now, however, a middle and upper class suburban problem and is spreading.

Confusion is the trend regarding drug problems. Knowledge should be the trend.

There are far too many self-appointed spokesmen about all problems and the drug area is no exception.

It took 9000 manhours to arrest 73 men involved in drug traffic in Washington, D. C. These 73 men represented 10% of the drug traffic in this city and some were "top men" in the organization. All are now out of jail on bail, practicing their trade.

We must have greater understanding and greater participation in the organization. All are now out of jail on bail, practicing their trade.

We must have greater understanding and greater participation in the organization. All are now out of jail on bail, practicing their trade.

Urges Use of Only One Social Security Card

Graduating students who will move into their first full-time jobs this year should be certain before they draw their first paychecks that they have social security numbers and that they are accurately recorded by their employers, Ralph Brasher, district manager of the Social Security office at East St. Louis, urged today.

Those who have worked part-time jobs previously, and already possess a social security card, should use that same card and number, Brasher explained, because credits for money earned possibly can be overlooked in one account if a worker holds more than one social security card with different numbers.

Obtaining credit for all time worked is extremely important in the case of young workers, Brasher said, since, in many cases of disability, a worker must have been employed at least 1½ years to be eligible for benefits. A few months of part-time work could make the difference in his qualifications. If that previous credit is hidden in an account under a previous social security number, it is possible the credit never would be found, Brasher said.

"If his work was recorded under more than one social security number, we'd probably find it, but there is a chance we might not," the district manager said.

"The way to make sure is to have just one social security number, and make sure that every employer you work for copies it correctly into his records."

Percy Pays Tribute To Venice in Congress

A copy of a statement read in the Congressional Record on Wednesday, May 6, by U.S. Senator Charles H. Percy, was received last week by Steve Konkovich, public relations director for Quad-City Amvets Post 51.

The statement reads: "Mr. President, I should like to commend the city of Venice, Ill., for having taken the national lead in adopting an appropriate tribute to its war dead."

"More than a year ago, the City Council of Venice passed an ordinance directing that the American flag be flown at half-staff for its fallen servicemen. Venice was the first municipality to pass such a law, and I am happy to report that Venice's example has been followed by many cities across the country. Amvets organizations in many areas deserve much of the credit for bringing the idea to the attention of their local governments."

"President Nixon heads a list of prominent public officials who have commended the city of Venice for its patriotic effort."

"Recently, the National Amvets Commander, Robert B. Gornik, presented the mayor of Venice, Dr. John E. Lee, with the National Amvets Award, recognizing the city's position of leadership."

"Venice, Ill., is a modest-sized city, with a population of only 5000, but it has gained national reputation for itself by creating the Venice Tribute for its fallen fighting men. I am proud to represent this fine city."

Teka Neko Tai, a Lhasa Apso female puppy, owned by Deborah S. Cavins, 12, a College JHS seventh grade pupil, won first place awards in its class and reserve winner at both Peoria and Springfield and a second place award at the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club Show in St. Louis.

The local girls, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cavins, 3315 Wabash, avenue, plan to show their puppy champions Sunday at the Belle-Fair Grounds, Belleville, site of the Belle City Dog Club's annual show.

Recognition Being Sought For Mitchell Firemen

Community recognition for volunteer firemen, specifically one man whose quick reaction and assistance saved the life of a seven-year-old Granite City girl on May 21, is suggested in a letter received by the Press-Record from a sheriff's deputy who witnessed the incident.

Deputy Sheriff David Reno wrote the newspaper suggesting that community action be taken to recognize the heroism of Stanley Lucas of the Mitchell volunteer fire department.

Lucas, 33, the father of three children, risked his life last Thursday night to rescue and revive Janice Baehr, who was knocked unconscious by high tension voltage from a line which fell across an automobile near the scene of the blaze that destroyed Poor Boy John's discount store.

According to the letter written by Reno, Lucas was assisted by another volunteer fireman, Bud Eberhardt, Janice, a second grade pupil.

Dependency Exemption Remains Despite Jobs

Parents whose children find summertime jobs during vacation do not necessarily lose dependency exemptions for children who earn more than $655, according to Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for Central and Southern Illinois.

Philpott pointed out that full-time students of any age or children under 19 may be claimed as dependents regardless of the amount of income they earn during the taxable year, so long as the parents contribute more than one-half of the children's support for the taxable year.

To qualify as a student the dependent must, for each of the five months of the calendar year for which the exemption is sought, be a full-time student at an educational institution, or pursuing a full-time course of instruction on a farm training under the supervision of an accredited agent of an educational institution or of a state or political subdivision.

He added, however, that no dependency exemption may be claimed for married children filing joint returns with their spouses.

Permit Required For Fireworks Displays

Any group of three or more persons who wish to sponsor a fireworks display in an unincorporated area of the county has until June 19 to apply for a fireworks permit at the office of County Clerk Eulalia Hotz at Edwardsville. State law requires such an application be filed at least 15 days prior to the display.

Miss Hotz explained that the Illinois law also requires that a competent person designated by the chairman of the county board of supervisors handle the display. Applicants for fireworks permits must list the names of three persons competent to handle the fireworks and the board chairman designates one of the three to handle the display.

Penalties for failure to put on displays without obtaining the permit provide for a fine up to $100, or up to 90 days in jail, or both, Miss Hotz said.
